ABSTRACT

The title of this study Perception of Permanent Teachers SMK Negeri 10 Bandung The Competence of Teacher of Subjects of Entrepreneurship. The purpose of this study was to determine the perception of permanent teacher SMK Negeri 10 Bandung against the competensy of teacher of subjects of entrepreneurship.

The method used in this reasearch in descriptive analysis. The population in this study were teachers remain SMK Negeri 10 Bandung totaling 50 people. The data obtained from the questionnaire study and interviews conducted for permanent teacher and subject teacher of entrepreneurship. Analysis of the data used is the analysis of the data by calculating the average score with the help SPSS release 21.0 for windows.

The results of the research competense of teachers of entrepreneurship is in both criteria. Based on data analysis has bee done of the obtained results of the research shows, there is average of the pecentage 79.3 % interpretation states that teaches have pedagogical competence good entrepreneurship, the average percentage 82.9% interpretation stating that the competence of the teacher’s personality as well entrepreneurship subjects well, the average percentage 83.6% interpretation stated that the social competence of teacher of entrepreneurship is good and the average percentage 81% interpretation stated that the profesional competence of teacher of entrepreneurship is also good. This shows the ability of entrepreneurship teacher manage learning for learners need to be improved in order to achieve a high pedagogical competence. Conclusion of the study is acceptable, as the end of study authors submit to any suggestion that teachers improve their competence which is an important asset in executing the responsibilities and duties as a teacher and educator,

Keywords: Pedagogical Competence, Personality Competence, Social Competence and Profesional Competence