

THE APPLICATION OF DISCOVERY LEARNING MODEL TO FOSTER CONFIDENT AND
CONSCIENTIOUS ATTITUDE ON SUBTEMA TOGETHERNESS IN DIVERSITY

(Research Action Class in the class IV
SDN Saluyu Bandung's academic year 2016/2017)

By
Andi Julianto
125060190

ABSTRACT

Class action research (PTK) is carried out in SD Negeri Saluyu with the subject is class IV. As for the research objectives of this class action is to improve the attitude of the Confident and conscientious and results of student learning. In this study researchers to do research on the sub theme of togetherness in diversity with a model of Discovery Learning in the lesson. The object of research is the grade IV with the number of students 40 people comprising 20 men and 20 women, as for the instruments used in the research was observation, assessment of student learning in the form of post test. Processing and data collection on the basis of test results, sheet observation, interview and documentary study of the observer. From the results of the study, the average data on student learning outcomes actions in cycle I get average results the results of the study conducted back in next 43.4 cycle II get the 78. Improvement of the learning outcomes in the form of a percentage of the cycle I became 80% continued back in cycle II becomes 100% of the total 40 completely in the results of learning. You can conclude that learning to use a model of Discovery Learning on the sub theme of togetherness in diversity can improve the attitude of the confident and conscientious and results of student learning.

Keywords: Discovery Learning, attitude of the confident, thorough and the results of the study