

ABSTRACT

ROLE OF TEACHER EDUCATION IN CITIZENSHIP COPING WITH JUVENILE STUDENT IN SCHOOL

Keywords: Overcoming Juvenile Students By Master Civic Education

Teachers of civic education not only as a learning material, but is attempting to address student misbehavior towards a better and responsible in a private establishment that has a good basic discipline. Therefore, teachers need membelajarkan civic education of students with learning ways in which gives a moral message about the attitude of the character formation of the students to be good citizens and be role models for the implementation of coaching attitude character formation of students to build good citizens. Author formulate issues to be studied are "how the role of civics teachers in dealing with student misbehavior in SMA Pasundan 7 Bandung". The purpose of this study as evidence of the general and specific objectives, namely to find out how the role of teachers of Civics in tackling delinquency students in SMA Pasundan 7 Bandung through learning programs are directed to various aspects in the values of appreciation according to indicators of student misbehavior to establish identity has a good attitude. The author uses descriptive method of research that focuses on solving the problems that exist at the present time, actual, and the data collected, compiled, analyzed later explained, because of the issues examined in accordance with these criteria.

The results showed that the belief can be concluded that there are efforts in addressing student misbehavior is quite good in the role of teacher directed learning civics through the various aspects of the appreciation in the values according to the indicators address the delinquency students to build good citizens and intelligent. Conclusion of the study the Civics teachers can implement learning programs in accordance with its role as a teacher of civics. Can implement learning programs with measures in addressing student misbehavior as well as able to overcome obstacles and has been attempting to establish the character of students to become good citizens and smarter with the maximum is to ceaselessly provide advice and occasionally punishing sanctions for students who do not obey and always give examples of behavior that reflects the mischief aimed at the formation of character to the students to become good citizens.