

Abstract

This thesis is written to explain the moral values and meaning found in some Robert Frost's poems. Poetry is part of a literary work; poetry describes a wide variety of spoken and written forms, styles, and patterns, and also a wide variety of subjects. Poetry helps us learn more about human life. Understand how human character and emotion are influenced by natural surroundings. Understand more about a particular of life, like social, culture, politic, education, etc. The writer chose "An Analysis of Moral Values in Frost's Poems" as the title of his research. The writer limits the research into analyzing only seven poems. The writer decided to analyze poems namely: Fire and Ice, Neither out Far Not in Deep, Out, Out, Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening, Provide, provide, Acquainted with the Night and The Road Not Taken. The research method in this thesis is the library research based on the poems and supported by information and opinion by the previous researcher. The writer decided to analyze seven poems by Robert Frost; from those poems the writer could find many moral values and meanings that very useful for the readers.

Keynote: Poetry, poems, moral values, meanings