

SELF EFFICACY AND SELF REGULATION HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS OVER PASUNDAN ON LEARNING SYSTEM

Abstract

This research intended to describe self efficacy and self regulation high school students over Pasundan 7 Bandung. This research is a qualitative research with the subject of research 22 Students high school science class over Pasundan 7 Bandung. Self efficacy is measured by polls, Self regulation measured by polls. Self-efficacy Data with self regulation analyzed with a Pearson Pearson test. Based on the result of the average value of self efficacy 68.87 is on good category and the average value of self regulation 76.77 is on very good category, meaning the higher self efficacy is getting down self regulation students. Based on the test with the SPSS Program 16.0 got the value of a 0.035 with the value of significance $p < 0.05$ and the negative -0.451 value which means correlation to reverse. The result suggests that there is a connection against lowering self regulation by 20.3%.

Keywords: self efficacy, self regulation, qualitative,