

ABSTRACT

The title of this research is “THE ROLE OF TEACHER EDUCATION IN IMPROVING TASTE OF LOVE COUNTRY IN THE SCHOOL (Study Descriptive Analysis Of SMAN 16 Bandung)”

The formulation of the problem that the authors propose is 1) How to process in growing the character of love of water implant applied by Civic teacher at school. 2) How the forms of behavior reflects the attitude of students in the school environment homeland love. 3) Constraints faced by teachers of civis as character educators in fostering homeland love for students. 4) How the efforts of civics teacher as character educators in overcoming obstacles encountered in growing homeland love.

The purpose of this study is to answer the problem formulation that the authors propose. The problem formulation that the authors propose. The research method that the authors propose. The research method that the writer use is qualitative research method with descriptive method of analysis, the researcher use descriptive method of analysis with the purpose to know the love of homeland in school environment.

The form of descriptive analytical research is research by focusing on the problems as they are when the research is conducted, the result of which are then processed and analyzed to be taken in the school environment.

Based on the result of the study the authors concluded that the role of civic education teachers in improving the love of homeland in the school environment has a good role of exemplary teachers and provide motivation to students and the process in learning civis so that students easily understand the importance of the love of the homeland and can realize the form of love of the homeland.

As the end of the research, the writer suggested to the teacher of civic education should give more real example in front of the students about the love forms of the homeland, then to the students in order to be able to develop the character of their love, and the next researcher to do research on the taste love the homeland in the school environment better.

Keywords: The Role Of Master In Increasing Love Of the Country