

Chapter V

Conclusions and Suggestions

5.1 Conclusions

From this analysis has been concluded, the writer found three kinds of moral values in Oliver Twist novel. The first is the action of the main character to himself. The second is the action of the main character to other, in this part includes the actions of the main character to his environment or people around him. The third is the action of the main character to his God.

The writer found some contents to each moral. For the first which is the action of the main character to himself are independence, patience, bravery and kind. For the second which is the action of the main character to others are politeness, sincerity, solidarity. For the third which is the action of the main character to his God are obedient and keep praying to God.

Based on the statement above, the contains of the novel have many good indirect moral values. It contains about the morality of main character that has good attitude towards people around him. He is a very good person, he has the attitude that can conform in many situations and conditions. We can take some kind of moral values in this novel as role in our real life.

5.2 Suggestions

The writer realizes that this paper is still far from being perfect. Therefore, the writer gives some suggestions. The suggestions are purposed for the readers, researchers, institutions, or anyone who are interested in this research topic. The suggestions are:

- The writer hopes to the further researchers to do more comprehensive the investigating by reading the novel
- The writer expects that this research can be developed not only discusses the moral values but the aspect of the novel such as theme, setting, plot, character, point of view, etc)
- To enrich knowledge by reading literary book especially novels.