ABSTRACT

This research is entitled "The Efforts of PPKn Teachers Through the Application of Picture and Picture Learning Models to Increase Student Motivation in the Social Sciences X Class of Kemala Bhayangkari High School Bandung". The purpose of this study was to determine the efforts of PPKn Teachers through the Recognition of Picture and Picture Learning Models to Improve Student Motivation in the x ips class at Kemala Bhayangkari High School Bandung. The specific purpose of this study was to obtain data about the implementation of the use of picture and picture learning model in improving learning motivation in the class X ips SMA Kemala Bhayangkari Bandung, increasing student motivation after using the picture and picture learning model, the obstacles faced by teachers in using picture learning model and picture, an effort that can be done to overcome the obstacles faced in the use of the picture and picture learning model in the class x ips SMA Kemala Bhayangkari Bandung.

The method used in this study is a qualitative descriptive method. Which goes through the stages of Observation, Questionnaire, Interview and Documentation Study. The object of this study were PPKn Subject Teachers and Students in the Kemala Bhayangkari High School class X ips 1 and 2 Bandung and 45 questionnaires for 45 people. With the results of the study that the application through the picture and picture learning model in improving student learning motivation, giving motivation encouragement given by the teacher and supported by students in the classroom environment can improve student learning motivation in the class x ips SMA Kemala Bhyangkari Bandung.

At the end of the study, the researchers conveyed the conclusion that the role of PPKn Teachers through the application of picture and picture plays an important role in increasing the learning motivation of students.

Keywords: PPKn Teacher, Picture and picture Learning Model, Student Learning Motivation