

ABSTRACT

Indonesia is a law country, in which all rules are based on applicable law. In this case all the rules have been set on Undang-Undang Dasar Tahun 1945 in outline, and then the outline of rule have described again in the relevant Regulations or on the Laws. And also citizens who have rights and obligations in their her lives, which turns out that the rights and obligations are regulated in the country's constitution, in the Republic of Indonesia the regulation concerning the protection of the rights and obligations of its citizens is contained in the Undang-Undang Dasar Tahun 1945. Which further obligations of citizens to comply with rules that create state. In order to create conditions uncluttered and peaceful country.

People need to move from one place to another place, which requires a device who called a transportation. This transportation or known as a vehicle has many types. Namely land vehicles, marine vehicles and air vehicles. in this situation to regulate the means of transportation, a country has its own rules to create a harmony from a driver to another driver, and do the rules about driving are made and they can knows about the right and obligations to each other.

There are also regulations is about law of Law on Traffic and Road Force, which contains rules regarding standardization of vehicles, vehicle loads, rules for motorists, rules on road markings, rules on traffic signs, rules about drivers, and other. who the purpose is to creat a comfort of transportation, and also to make safty for the users.