

ABSTRACT

The application of Pancasila values is an obligation for Indonesian citizens because it is the state foundation of Indonesia which is made to become life guidance for Indonesian people. One example is through local wisdom of custom ceremony ngalaksa which become the lofty culture of people in Rancakalong Village, because it is a wisdom containing many virtue values. However, the life which is increasingly modern cause the virtue values become fade away and not applied in accord with Pancasila values even local wisdom. So, those values will be gradually disappeared because people can be influenced by western culture which is not suited with Indonesian nation identity. This study aims to delve and study the information about the application of Pancasila values through the local wisdom of custom ceremony ngalaksa in Rancakalong Village, Rancakalong Sub-District, Sumedang Regency. This study use qualitative approach with description method to describe and answer the problems related to the phenomena above. Data and information collection technique is done through interview, observation and documentary study. The finding of this study are (1) the custom ceremony ngalaksa is realization of people's belief system which Rancakalong Village people consider as sacred and holly; (2) in the custom ceremony ngalaksa contain Pancasila values, that is, the custom ceremony ngalaksa is held as realization of people's thanks for obtaining the harvest, and as people unifier because in its implementation, people participate collectively to hold the custom ceremony ngalaksa, both of meanings are realization of the first principle of Pancasila namely The One and Only Divine and the third principle of Pancasila namely Indonesian Unity: (2) That the custom ceremony ngalaksa is strongly related to Pancasila values; (4) the solution to solve various problem in preserving Pancasila values and the local wisdom of custom ceremony Ngalaksa is the support from parents, community, and government in holding the custom ceremony Ngalaksa.

Keywords: Value, Pancasila, Local Wisdom, Custom Ceremony Ngalaksa