ABSTRACT

This study aims to find out how the role of village government in increasing youth participation in youth organizations in Gudangkahuripan village, Lembang sub-district, West Bandung regency. This research is motivated by problems or phenomena that exist today, where the level of youth participation in youth organizations in Gudang village is still low. Lack of youth awareness of the importance of organizing and lack of government role to increase youth participation. So the formulation of the problem in this study are: How awareness of participating young people to youth organizations, how the role of the Village Government in increasing youth participation in youth organizations, How the role of the Village Government in overcoming factors that hinder youth to participate in youth organizations, How a solution to overcome obstacles in increasing youth participation in youth organizations in Gudangkahuripan Village. This study uses Descriptive method with Qualitative Approach, Subjects and Objects in this Research Gudangkahuripan village government and the dependent variable is youth participation, data collection and research instruments used in this study by conducting interviews with the village head as the government, as well as distributed questionnaires to some young people in the village of Gudangkahuripan.

The results showed that (1) the village government had taken a role to increase youth participation, seen from the activities held. (2) Youth participation in youth organization which is hampered by several factors, such as education level gap and employment factors.

Keywords : The Role of Village Government, Youth Youth Organization Participation, in Gudangkahuripan Village.