Chapter V
Conclusions and Suggestion

5.1 Conclusions

After analyzing the research finding, the writer wants to describe some conclusions about slang words. In this paper, the writer discusses the slang words that used in The Secret Life of Pets Movie produced by Illumination Entertainment, 2016. As the writer has proposed the kinds of slang words in the theoretical framework and in the research finding, the writer concludes that slang words used in the movie can be classified into Public House Slang, and Social Slang, based on the words used both in the conversation on the movie and in type of Slang mentioned above.

From the slang types that the writer mentioned above, Society Slang was the slang words that most often used in the movie. Because this movie takes a lot of background places closely connected with society. They make their relationship with the people around them closer. Then they spontaneously create new words that they can use to approach their relationship. People in society considered slang words as a new fashion or trend. They are created their own words and phrases only can be understood by their own groups to enrich the language in the society.

5.2 Suggestions

Through this paper, the writer suggest for those who are interested in analyzing the slang words, should join the group of society who utilized the slang words for improving their knowledge of language study and about understanding standard or non standard languages which appear in society.

Especially for the students of English Literature Department Faculty of Arts and Letters, Pasundan University Bandung. The writer suggests that studying about slang words is very interesting, so they must master the topics they want to discuss, and they should enjoy in the search for materials. They also find slang words through reading English subtitle movie, scipt movie, and listening movie, foreign movies, internet or slang dictionaries that supported slang data.

Finally, the writer hopes that this study will be useful for the future improvement of studying literature, especially about the slang words, and as a reference for the students of English Literature of Pasundan University, who want to do the similar research.
