ABSTRACT

This study aims to provide an overview of how Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility, Reputation, and Shariah Governance in Islamic commercial banks listed on the Financial Services Authority in 2013-2017 and to know the effect of Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility, Reputation and Shariah Governance on Islamic Banking Performance.

The research method that used in this study is descriptive and verification method. The population of this study was 12 Islamic commercial banks which were listed on the Financial Services Authority in the period 2013-2017. The method of selecting this study sample using a purposive sampling method with a total of 6 Islamic commercial banks that meet the criteria. Data analysis was performed using the classic assumption test and hypothesis testing with multiple linear regression.

Based on the results of the study, most of Islamic commercial bank listed on the Financial Services Authority in 2013-2017 had Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility is included in the high category, Reputation is in the low category, Shariah Governance is included in the high category and Islamic Banking Performance fall into the low category. Partially, Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility has an effect on Islamic Banking Performance, Reputation has an effect on Islamic Banking Performance and Shariah Governance has an effect on Islamic Banking Performance. And simultaneously Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility, Reputation and Shariah Governance affect the Islamic Banking Performance.

Keywords: Islamic Corporate Social Responsibility, Reputation, Shariah Governance and Islamic Banking Performance