

ABSTRACT

RELATIONSHIP INTEREST IN COOPERATION WITH THE LEVEL OF STUDENT COOPERATION IN STUDENTS OF ECONOMIC EDUCATION FKIP UNPAS FORCE 2017

By :

Melani Saskia Putri
155020094

The problem in this study is to determine the relationship of interest in cooperating with the level of participation of Student Cooperatives in the Faculty of Economic Education FKIP Unpas class of 2017. The purpose of this study is (1) to find out the interest in cooperating in the Faculty of Economic Education FKIP UNPAS 2017, (2) Knowing the Level of Cooperative Participation Students at the Faculty of Economic Education Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences UNPAS 2017, and (3) knowing the relationship between interest in cooperatives and the level of participation of Cooperatives and students can overcome the cooperative problems they face. The method used in this study is a survey approach with quantitative data associative explanatory level of causal relations. Data collection techniques using a questionnaire with a population of 113 students who then withdrawn as many as 88 students. Respondents in this study were students of Economics Education FKIP Unpas Force 2017. Based on the results of the study can be obtained survey results of student cooperative interest in the Faculty of Economics Education FKIP Unpas 2017 has an average of 3.59 included in the high category and the level of student cooperative participation in students FKIP Unpas Economics Education class of 2017 has an average of 3.13 included in the category of sufficient participation. The result of processing the correlation test sig F change value of 0,000 is smaller than 0.5%, it is said that the closeness between the two variables can be seen from the r value of 722 meaning that the interest in student cooperation has a relationship of 72,2% with the level of participation of the majority of student cooperatives by 27,8% is influenced by other factors not examined by researchers.

Keywords: Interest in Student Cooperatives, Participation Level of Student Cooperatives