

ABSTRACT

Asep Hermawan (2019). The Role of the Civil Service Police Against the Arrangement of Street Vendors in Implementing Local Regulation Number 04 of 2011 Regarding the Arrangement and Development of Street Vendors.

This study aims to describe the role of the civil service police unit in implementing local regulation No 04 of 2011 regarding the role and guidance of street vendors. This research is a research with a qualitative approach. This research was conducted in the city of Bandung. The data source of this research is Bandung City Satpol PP and Bandung City Cicadas PKL. The focus of this research is : 1) How is the role of Satpol PP in implementing local regulations on street vendors in Bandung, 2) What is the obstacle experienced by Satpol pp in structuring street vendors in the city of Bandung, 3) What efforts have been made by Satpol PP in controlling street vendors in Bandung, 4) Street vendors compliance with regional regulation No 04 of 2011 concerning the arrangement and guidance of street vendors. Data collection was carried out using the questionnaire, observation, document and interview methods. Data analysis techniques used are reduction, data display and conclusion drawing. Triangulation is done to obtain the validity of the data by checking, and cross-checking.

The results showed that: The role of Satpol PP Bandung in structuring street vendors is policing and socialization is carried out as a function of Satpol PP in addition to its main task is controlling. Implementing the rearrangement of Regional Regulation No. 04 of 2011 concerning the Structuring and fostering of Street Vendors in Bandung is not only done by Satpol PP with street vendors, but also with the city government and various agencies incorporated in a Special Team to deal with the problem of street vendors known as the Team PKL Task Force.

Keywords: Civil Service Police Unit, Street Vendors