

ABSTRACT

Bungasari (2019). Growing Role of Political Parties in the constitutional awareness In Bandung District Assembly Members.

This study aims to determine the role of political parties in the local parliament Bandung Gerindra party faction and party PKS as raising awareness on legislators fraction constitutional party. In this research, using qualitative methods. Inside this method uses the stages of observation, interviews and documentation. This research use case study research strategy. Data were analyzed using qualitative analysis techniques, including: 1) the reduction of data, 2) data, 3) conclusion or verification. The findings of the study concluded that: 1) The role of the Party Gerindra and Party PKS in foster constitutional awareness in Bandung regency legislators fraction of his party is to conduct political education given a briefing in the form of materials about the Constitution and the law; and 2) The efforts of the party Gerindra and party PKS in foster constitutional awareness on legislators Bandung Regency fraction of his party is to perform: a) workshop, b) seminars, c) cadre course d) briefing-debriefing special to cadres sitting in public offices (executive and legislative) of the constitution and laws, e) conduct oversight of the party's members of parliament fraction.

Keywords: Political Parties, Members of Parliament, Constitutional Awareness