

ABSTRACT

The Effect of Parents' Education Level on Student Learning Motivation in Economic Subjects (Survey on the XI class of Social Sciences students of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung)

PUTRI MAWAR GUSTIANI
165020048

The aims in this research are: (1) knowing how the parent's education level in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung, (2) knowing how students' motivation in economic subjects in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung, (3) knowing how great influence the level of parental education on student motivation in economic subjects in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung. The approach used in this research is qualitative to quantitative, with survey methods and data collection techniques in the form of study documentation and questionnaires, and data processing techniques used statistik regresi to answers the hypothesis in this study reads that "There is an influence of the parent's education level (X) on student motivation (Y) in economics subjects of XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung." The results of this research indicate: (1) the parent's education level in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung amounted to 2,7, (2) the student motivation in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung amounted to 3,16 with good categories, (3) the influence of parental education level on student motivation in XI class of Social Sciences of SMA Negeri 17 Bandung amounted 0.666 or 66,6%. The author suggests to the relevant parties, namely: (1) students must have a high learning motivation (2) teachers have to be able to understand the background of students, it helps they to provide the right motivation for students, (3) schools have to be able to provide services based on what is students need,, (4) for further researchers who want to conduct similar research, are expected to examine additional factors that might affect the results of this research.

Keywords: parental education level, learning motivation, economic subjects