

ANALYSIS OF THE IMPACT OF EDUCATION BALANCE SHEET ON THE PERFORMANCE OF EDUCATION OFFICE BANDUNG 2015-2019

DWI PUTRI SEPTIANI

165020041

ABSTRACT

Human resources are the key to success in providing quality educational services. But in reality the quality of education performance is not optimal, as well as the education budget always fluctuates every year. This research aims to find out: (i) an overview of the education balance of Bandung city (ii) an overview of the performance of the education office in the use of education budgets in the city of Bandung (iii) how much impact of the balance of education on the performance of the bandung education office. The method used is a survey that uses a quantitative approach with a sample of the education budget from 2015-2019 in the city of Bandung. The data collection techniques in this study are secondary data, as well as data analysis techniques using simple regression tests with data management performed using the help of the SPSS Statistics Version 24.0 for Windows and Microsoft excel data processing applications. The results showed: (i) the picture of the balance of education in Bandung presents data on education funding data on the education budget in 2015-2019 which each knows fluctuates, education data on development index that increases from each know, supported by adequate facilities and facilities, with an improved education ratio and also the quality of teachers who have a high level of education so that human resources in Bandung are already running properly. (ii) the performance of the education office in the use of education budget in Bandung increased in 2019 by 88% (iii) the impact of the education balance on the performance of the education office in Bandung is 98.8% which can be categorized very highly and the remaining 1.2% is influenced from other factors outside the realm of the education balance.

Keywords: balance of education, performance of education office in bandung city, economy education