

ABSTRACT

Firda Fadhilah. (2020). An Analysis of Law Number 6 of 2014 of The Republic of Indonesia Regarding Village to Improve the Welfare of the Citeureup Villagers, Dayeuhkolot Sub-District, Bandung District.

This research based on the Law Number 6 of 2014 of The Republic of Indonesia regarding Village which aimed to improve the welfare of the villagers according to the rights of villagers origin. This research aims to indicate the role of village government in Citeureup Village in implementing Law Number 6 of 2014 of The Republic of Indonesia Regarding Village in achieving the Welfare of the Villagers. There were four problems formulation in this research, they were the role of village government in Citeureup Village for the welfare of villagers, the management of village grants to improve the welfare of the villagers, the problems in Citeureup Village, and the effort of village government in Citeureup village to deal with the problems. This research used qualitative approach and case study method towards the subjects of the research, such as Head of Citeureup Village, Secretary of Citeureup Village, Head of Village Grants, Head of Rural Development, and Citeureup Villagers. The data collection was accomplished by observation, interview, and documentation study by applying data reduction, data presentation, and conclusions. The result of this research showed that (1) There was an improvement of welfare of the Citeureup Villagers (2) The village grants was used for physical infrastructure development, and it was balanced with the village community empowerment. (3) The problems of Citeureup Village were flood, the authority of countermeasures of Watershed, the lack of land, and the lack of management of Village-Owned Enterprise. (5). The effort of village government in Citeureup Village to deal with the development of drainage, by coordinating with regional government, utilizing grant land, and fixing the bureaucracy of Village-Owned Enterprise administrator.

Key words: Analysis, Law Number 6 of 2014 of The Republic of Indonesia Regarding Village, The Role of Village Government in Citeureup Village, and The Welfare of The Villagers