

ABSTRACT

Insan Pauji. (2020). The Role of Police Bhabinkamtibmas in Implementing Law No. 2 of 2002 concerning the Indonesian National Police and Efforts to Prevent Social Conflict from Occurring in Social Life.

Bhabinkamtibmas Polri in Implementing Law No. 2 of 2002 concerning the Indonesian National Police and Efforts to Prevent the Occurrence of Social Conflicts that Happen in Social Life. This research is motivated by the events that arise in the community that constantly arise that cause harm to the people involved and affected, where the contribution of issues that develop in the community thus encouraging the community to improve things related to social. The most important role in security at home is the Indonesian republic's police force responsible for security, order and legal protection for conflict-affected communities. Prevention of social conflict by the Indonesian National Police will minimize the resolution of prolonged conflict in social life through the empowerment of the National Police in the Bhabinkamtibmas unit (Bhayangkara, the fosterer of security and public order).

Keywords: Role of Bhabinkamtibmas, implementation of Law No. 2 of 2002 concerning Polri, social conflict