

ANALYSIS OF LEARNING ACTIVITIES THROUGH STUDENT WORKSHEETS (LKS) IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
(Study of literature)

by

Sani Nur Mauluddiah
175060076

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was to determine the concept of student worksheets, the concept of learning activities, and to find out learning activities through student worksheets from various experts at the elementary school education level (SD). This research is a qualitative research with literature study method. The focus of the research analyzed is student learning activities through student worksheets from previous research by various experts. The data collection technique used in this research is the documentation method by searching for data in the form of documents from various sources such as books, journals, and articles. Meanwhile, the data analysis technique of this research uses interpretive, comparative, deductive and inductive analysis. The results of the study showed that learning activities experienced significant changes. With the use or development of worksheets in elementary schools can make student learning activities maximal. LKS acts as a learning aid by adjusting the needs in the learning process.

Keywords: Learning Activities, Student Worksheets (LKS), Elementary School.