

ANALYSIS ON NEWS SCRIPT OF REPUBLIKA'S APRIL 2020 ISSUE BASED ON ITS LANGUAGE STRUCTURE AND GRAMMAR BY USING 2013 CURRICULUM AS THE GUIDANCE

ABSTRACT

This study is conducted in order to analyze news script of Republika's April, 2020 issue based on language and grammatical structure by using 2013 curriculum of eight grader as the guidance. This study is aimed at giving various teaching material on news script study that is incorporated in the curriculum. On KD (basic competition) number two, it is found that several students are having difficulty on understanding the whole context of the news script clearly and identifying its grammatical structure. The method used in this study is descriptive-qualitative method. Twelve news texts on Republika's April 2020 is used as data source of this study. The data of this study is an analysis on the news texts language and grammatical structure. The following are results of the study; The first, structure found on the news script such as lead, body, and tail. Second, stylistic devices and grammar found in the text is that the using of formal language, direct sentences, the using of "that" as conjunction, mental-state verbs, the using of place and time as complement, as well as the using of temporal conjunction. Third, the result of the analysis is adapted according to 2013 curriculum standard.

Key words: analysis, curriculum 2013, news script