

ABSTRACT

This study aims to determine how much influence the transparency and accountability of political parties against the financial management of political parties. One of the parties involved in the financial management of political parties is transparency and accountability. The method used is descriptive and associative. The population in this study amounted to 54 political party leaders, as well as the sample is determined by using the formula slovin. Testing the hypothesis proposed, analyzed by technical statistic is the normality test, validity test, reliability test, regression analysis, correlation analysis, coefficient of determination, t test and F test results showed that the partial transparency of significant influence amounted to 0.614 or 61.4% of the financial management of political parties and accountability of political party influence 0.774 or 77.4%. While the F-test and significant effect on the financial management of political parties (Y), a significant value 0.000 and 55.591 calculated F value greater than 2,448 table F. Transparency and accountability of political parties a significant effect on the financial management of political parties amounted to 74.5% and the remaining 25.5% is influenced by other variables not examined.

Keywords: Accountability Political Party, Political Party Financial Management, Transparency of Political Party.