

LITERATURE PSYCHOLOGICAL ANALYSIS OF THE BEHAVIOR OF CHARACTERS AND CHARACTERISTICS CONTAINING THE VALUE OF CHARACTER EDUCATION IN THE NOVEL JANJI OF TERE LIYE'S WORK
AND ITS FEASIBILITY AS LITERATURE TEACHING MATERIALS IN HIGH SCHOOL

ABSTRAC

This research is motivated by the desire to analyze aspects of the characters and characterizations in the novel Janji by Tere Liye using the psychological theoretical basis of Sigmund Freud. The purpose of this research is to describe the behavior of the characters and characterizations in the novel Janji by Tere Liye which was studied with a literary psychology approach and to describe the value of character education in the characters and characterizations in the novel in terms of the results of literary psychology analysis. This study also aims to determine the feasibility of the results of the analysis as one of the teaching materials in the form of LKPD. In the implementation, the writer uses descriptive qualitative method. The overall data obtained from this research are in the form of 580 literary psychology quotes (Id, Ego, Superego) from the characters and characterizations in the novel with details of 416 Id, Ego and Superego which are in line and 164 which are not in line. The overall results of the character education values contained in the results of the analysis of literary psychology are 505 values, including the value of religious character education 25 values, honesty 26 values, tolerance 28 values, discipline 29 values, hard work 51 values, creative 16 values, independent 4 values, democratic 9 values, curiosity 129 values, respect for achievement 8 values, friendly/communicative 49 values, peace-loving 12 values, fond of reading 2 values, environmental care 4 values, social care 88 values, responsibility 25 values. The LKPD teaching materials that have been made have been validated for feasibility by 1 lecturer and 2 Indonesian language teachers and have been tested on students who get an average score of 82,6 which can be concluded that the teaching materials in the form of LKPD are feasible.

Keywords: novel, literary psychology, character education value, teaching materials.