

Abstract

Character is important thing in literary work because a character functions as a person who moves a plot in a story. A story in a literary work can be interesting, one of which is that the characters created by the author can show the traits and actions. And that is called as a characterization. This research is entitled “Unusual Protagonist on Ainz Ooal Gown in Overlord Anime”. The objective of this study is the find out the main character Ainz Ooal Gown's characterization. The analysis of the study was done based on Plot theory by Ribo (2019) and Characterization theory by Minderop (2013). This study uses descriptive qualitative to analyze the data. The writer concludes that the main character in Overlord anime Ainz Ooal Gown is an unusual protagonist because his appearance is very scary, but his actions and words are not as scary as his appearance. He also could be a good and wise leader for the people in Nazarick and people the New World.

Keywords: Main Character, Anime, Characterization, Overlord