Muhamad Arpan (205010026) Cultivating Islamic Values Through Political Education Cadre in Bandung City Community (Case Study in DPD Partai Keadilan Sejahtera Bandung City)

This research is entitled Planting Islamic Values Through Political Education Cadreization in the Bandung City Community (Case Study at DPD Partai Keadilan Sejahtera Bandung City). The purpose of this research is to explain the Islamic values applied by DPD Partai Keadilan Sejahtera (PKS) in Bandung City in the context of political education, analyze the application of these values through the regeneration process, and identify the challenges faced and the strategies applied to overcome them. This research uses a qualitative approach with a case study method. The subjects in this study were the Management of DPD PKS Bandung City, PKS Cadres, and the community in Bandung City. The data collection method was carried out through in-depth interviews with DPD PKS administrators, PKS cadres in Bandung City and the community in Bandung City as well as documentation analysis of relevant documents. The findings of this study reveal that DPD PKS Bandung City develops Islamic values such as justice, welfare, unity, tolerance, democracy, as well as equality, ukhuwah Islamiyah, trustworthiness, deliberation (syuro), good morals, and social care in their political education. These values are applied through various regeneration activities, including training, discussions, and daily political practices as well as programs that directly relate to the community, such as social assistance and aspirations. Challenges faced include difficulties in applying Islamic values consistently in political practice, as well as ongoing changes in political dynamics. To overcome these challenges, DPD PKS Bandung City implements various strategies, such as strengthening the internalization of Islamic values among cadres, building cooperation with various parties, and evaluating regeneration programs regularly.
