This research is titled The Role of the Student Council (OSIS) in Shaping Political Literacy of Students in the Digital Era (A Case Study of the Student Council (OSIS) at SMA Pasundan Cikalongkulon). This research aims to understand the role of the Student Council (OSIS) of SMA Pasundan Cikalongkulon in shaping students' political literacy in the digital era. With a qualitative approach and the method used is a case study. The subjects of this research are the relevant parties at SMA Pasundan Cikalongkulon. The results of this study indicate that: (1) The work program carried out by the Student Council (OSIS) of SMA Pasundan Cikalongkulon in shaping students' political literacy in the digital era has been successfully implemented, marked by the PEMIRA (Election) program for the Chairman and Vice Chairman of OSIS; (2) The implementation of the Student Council (OSIS) work program in shaping students' political literacy in the digital era includes several activities consisting of PEMIRA (Election of OSIS Chairman and Vice Chairman), debates, KRISIS (OSIS Criticism and Suggestions), and PASCAL EDUFEST (Pasundan Cikalongkulon Education Festival). This work program has proven to be able to shape the political literacy of students in the digital era as it is now; (3) Obstacles in the activities of the Student Council (OSIS) program in fostering political literacy among students in the digital era, there are several obstacles in its implementation, one of which is related to poor communication that hinders the progress of these activities. This is a common obstacle encountered when carrying out an OSIS work program activity; (4) Solutions to overcome the obstacles related to the Student Council (OSIS) work program in fostering political literacy among students in the digital era, these solutions are efforts by the OSIS, OSIS advisors, and the school to improve the quality and effectiveness of the program.
